The AAPAE is also seeking to extend the scope of its activities, within the objectives laid down in the constitution. As part of this activity it is seeking to improve the level of contact with those outside the Association. Additional information from members about their interests and willingness to assist will help in this.

The information in this box will not be available to others beside the Committee without the specific approval of the member. It will not be included in any published directory of members.

I am willing to consider requests from organisations for the AAPAE to provide a speaker on topics in professional and applied ethics.
