This online form is only to be used if you have an unavoidable clash and:

a) You are enrolled in a program for which Arts & Social Sciences is the Program Authority; or
b) You are enrolled in a Dual Arts & Social Sciences program with another Faculty (e.g. Arts/Law or Commerce/Arts) and will only be missing the Arts & Social Sciences course or have a clash between two courses for your Arts & Social Sciences component.

If you are not one of the above, please seek advice from your Program Authority.

Rules and Procedures for Permissible Timetable Clashes

The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences allows permissible clashes only in certain circumstances:

a. The student is able to prove that they have no other option but to clash.
b. The clash can only be between lectures or between a lecture and a tutorial or seminar. Only the lecture can be missed.
c. Where the clash is between two lectures it is recommended that the student alternate attendance.
d. The clash can be for not more than one hour.
e. The missed lecture cannot be the first hour of a two hour lecture.
f. The student must be able to access, at minimum, a sound recording of the missed lecture either through Echo 360 or independent recording. The Course Convenor can reserve the right to refuse to allow the lectures in their course to be recorded independently.
g. The Course Convenor(s) must give their approval for the permitted clash.
h. A permitted clash will not be granted when the Clash is the result of over-enrolment.
i. Permissible clashes are not available to students in their first semester of study at University.

A student who is approved a permissible clash must fulfil the following requirements:

a. The student must provide the Course Convenor with copies of lecture notes and/or reading notes from those lectures missed on a regular basis as agreed by the Course Convenor and the student.
b. If a student does indeed attend a lecture for which they had secured a permitted clash they will still submit lecture notes and/or reading notes as evidence of attendance.
c. Failure to meet these requirements is regarded as unsatisfactory performance in the course and a failure to meet the Faculty's course attendance requirement. Accordingly, Course Convenors will fail students who do not meet this performance/attendance requirement.
d. Students must attend the clashed lecture on a specific date if that lecture contains an assessment task for the course such as a quiz or test. Inability to meet this requirement would be grounds for a Course Convenor refusing the application. If the student misses the said lecture there is no obligation on the Course Convenor to schedule a make-up quiz or test and the student can receive zero for the assessment task. It should be noted that in many courses a failure to complete an assessment task can be grounds for course failure.
