SUMMARY OF COURSE

This course provides an overview of the field of special and inclusive education. It surveys the characteristics, training, and educational needs of students with a disability, emphasizing accommodating students with a disability in inclusive settings, including legal mandates and regulations, characteristics and educational needs of students with a disability, and evidenced-based practices, which can be used with these students in the general education classroom.

By the end of the course, students will have a broad overview of the field and its key concepts, issues, and the relevant Department of Education policies. They will be conversant with the main categories of students with a disability and know some ways of accommodating for these students in the inclusive classroom.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED SINCE LAST TIME AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK:

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

In line with the UNSW Guidelines on Learning that Inform Teaching at UNSW, the learning and teaching philosophy behind this course is that students are actively engaged as they discuss current beliefs and learn new things. Course material is designed to be relevant to students' experience and assessment is intended as part of learning. In this course, students are required to take responsibility for their own learning.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

- small group cooperative learning to understand the importance of teamwork in an educational context and to demonstrate the use of group structures as appropriate to address teaching and learning goals
- explicit teaching including lectures and a range of teaching strategies to foster interest and support learning
- structured occasions for reflection on learning to allow students to reflect critically on issues discussed
- extensive opportunities for whole group and small group dialogue and discussion, allowing students the opportunity to demonstrate their capacity to communicate
- the completion of online modules and activities

These activities will occur in a climate that is supportive and inclusive of all learners.

Assessment Details

Assessment 1 – Evidence-based Practice Guide (45%)

This assessment will help you to:

- develop familiarity with the evidence-based practices in special and inclusive education,
- develop critical thinking skills,
- improve research and evaluation skills

Your assessment 1 task is to create an Evidence-based Practice Guide for beginning teachers, in which you demonstrate how selected evidence-based practices (EBPs) could be used in a high school classroom where there are students with special educational needs included. Select one area of skills that you wish to address in your guide (e.g., communication skills, social skills, literacy, numeracy, self-determination).

Your Evidence-based Practice Guide must contain a minimum of 4 evidence-based practices. Here are a few examples of EBPs that fall under an area of skill, but there is much more out there:

Communication skills

- Picture Exchange Communication System (PECS)
- Technology-aided instruction and intervention
- Functional communication training

Social skills

- Social narratives
- Video modelling
- Social skills training
- Self-management
- Peer-mediated instruction and intervention

Literacy

- Computer-Assisted Instruction (CAI)
- Direct Instruction
- Phonological awareness and phonological processing

Numeracy

- Direct Instruction
- Sequential Instruction
- Constructivist/ inquiry-based approaches

Self-determination

- Self-directed IEP
- “Whose Future Is It Anyway?”

Transitions to post-school life

- Student Participation in the IEP Meeting
- Using Community Based Instruction to teach employment skills

In regard to the structure of the assessment, begin the guide with an introduction that describes the importance of having a solid knowledge base of research-based teaching strategies and interventions. The practices you include can be strategies (proactive) or interventions (reactive). For each strategy/ intervention you include, please be sure to provide:

- a complete description of the practice, including when/why it would be used,
- implementation instructions detailed enough that a beginning teacher could follow the directions and use the strategies,
- a summary of the evidence supporting the practice for the area you decided to focus on.

Please make also sure to acknowledge the population for which an EBP is effective.

The EBPs practices should be well-aligned with each other.

The evidence you provide should be from peer-reviewed journal articles from the last ten years (that is from 2011-2020). Articles must be sourced from high-quality peer-reviewed journals. You should include a minimum of ten (10) references.

The Evidence-based Practice Guide should be 3,000 words long; the word count does not include the list of references. Please do not include tables, diagrams, bullet points, or “step 1, 2, 3” in this assessment to explain what steps teachers should take when implementing each EBP; instead use a narrative to describe this.

The guide should be written in APA 7th edition style; see the course Moodle site for more guidance.

Assessment 2 – Developing Information Booklet for High School Teachers (55%)

Each student will develop an information booklet for high school teachers focused on one of the following topics:

Topic 1 Creating an inclusive learning environment for all in high schools: Responding to the strengths and needs of students with diverse disabilities, students from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander backgrounds, and students from diverse linguistics, cultural, religious and socioeconomic backgrounds

This booklet should explain what inclusive education is, and what schools and teachers can do to be inclusive.

Your booklet should include (but not be limited to) the following:

- strategies for the inclusion of students with diverse disabilities in the educational life of classrooms and schools,
- strategies for the inclusion of Indigenous students in the educational life of classrooms and schools,
- strategies for the establishment of partnerships with parents and community for the education of students with disabilities,
- strategies for the establishment of partnerships with Aboriginal parents and communities for the education of Aboriginal students,
- strategies for the establishment of partnerships with parents and community for the education of students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

Topic 2 Applying Universal Design for Learning (UDL) in a high school class: Guidelines for mainstream high school teachers

This booklet should explain the three principles of UDL and how the three UDL principles can be used across the four curricular components.

Your booklet should include (but not be limited to) the following:

- tips how to present the material in a variety of ways in order to engage and teach students of all abilities, including those with disabilities as well as those who are gifted and talented,
- examples from your subject area,
- examples of teaching materials you would use,
- tips for preparing assessment criteria.

For this topic, you can:

- EITHER provide guidelines on applying the Universal Design for Learning in a high school class irrespective of subject area for mainstream high school teachers (but including some examples from your subject area)
- OR you can develop guidelines on applying the Universal Design for Learning in a high school class in your subject area. If you decide to go with this second option, you still need to provide “an introduction”/ “general information” about the Universal Design for Learning. This does not need to be extensive, but needs to provide high school teachers with foundations of the Universal Design for Learning in general.

Each information booklet should:

- be written in user-friendly language for high school teachers,
- have a clear structure, using headings and subheadings (please make sure that you include contents page),
- have introduction on the topic of the information booklet,
- provide advice to teachers based on evidence-based practice,
- provide useful examples and tips for teachers,
- list of resources (e.g., peer-reviewed book, journal articles, DVDs, websites) that you would recommend to high school teachers,
- list of references that you used in order to create the information booklet. The references should be from peer-reviewed journal articles from the last ten years (that is from 2011-2020). Articles must be sourced from high-quality peer-reviewed journals. You should include a minimum of ten (10) references.

This type of task is very practical, and you will definitely use it in your future practice; however, it is also a type of assessment that is really hard to put number of pages on. If you are struggling with estimating the amount of work required, then about 3,000 words is right. The word count does not include the list of references.

The guide should be written in APA 7th edition style; see the course Moodle site for more guidance.

This must be your original work!

The Information Booklet for High School Teachers should be submitted through Turnitin on the course's Moodle website.
