SUMMARY OF COURSE

This course is an introduction to the key concepts and issues surrounding gifted education. Through a mixture of online lectures, self-directed activities, discussion forums and self-directed reading, you will gain information and skills relating to the: (a) definitions, conceptions, and models of giftedness, including those commonly used in Australian schools, (b) the cognitive and affective characteristics of gifted students (and their differences to the cognitive and affective characteristics of non-gifted students), (c) the major principles and instruments used in the identification of gifted students, (d) diverse groups of gifted students, including twice exceptional students and exceptionally gifted students, and (e) creativity.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED SINCE LAST TIME AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK

- Requested was a 200-300-word limit for weekly discussion forum – this suggestion has been adopted.
- Requested that it is compulsory to respond to others in the discussion forum – this suggestion has been adopted
- Requests to understand how to identify more thoroughly – a guest expert in the field of identification will be interviewed by Dr Townend – the interview will be available online for all students.

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

The content of the course provides you with an overview of the major issues relevant to the education of gifted and talented students. The teaching approach attempts to actively engage you in discussion of current theory and practice and assists you in learning new information and skills related to key concepts in gifted education. You will be required to take responsibility for your own learning in this course.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES

The teaching strategies to be used in the course will comprise a mixture of online lectures, self-directed activities, participation in online discussion forums, and self-directed reading that reflect evidence-based teaching practices.

6. COURSE CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

The course is structured to be completed online through Moodle and will be intensive for 8 weeks, from week 1 Term 3 (week starting 16 September, 2019) to week 8 Term 3 (week starting 4 November, 2019) . Each of these weeks will require approximately 3 hours per week for online activities (24 contact hours for the course). This time should be used each week to complete the learning activities (See Moodle each week for weekly activities). Learning activities each week will involve viewing lectures* and workshops (listed below), writing and reflecting in response to weekly activity questions, and posting and responding to posts on the discussion forums. Additional readings are also required for each week (See Moodle). Tutors will post activities, moderate discussion forums and respond to comments and questions.

 All lectures are pre-recorded.
