SUMMARY OF THE COURSE

In this course, you will have an opportunity to build on or extend interests developed in your specialist area of education by undertaking a self-directed small-scale individual capstone project, supported by a supervising academic, in small groups with other students from the same specialisation. The project must demonstrate synthesis and application of knowledge and skills developed in coursework components of your specialisation to address a particular problem or issue in a previous or current work context.

THE MAIN WAYS IN WHICH THE COURSE HAS CHANGED SINCE LAST TIME AS A RESULT OF STUDENT FEEDBACK

- Developed some online material to support orienting students to the requirements of EDST5888.
- Reduced the overall scope of the final assessment to 6,000 words in alignment with other courses in the School.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Outcome	Assessment/s
1	Demonstrate advanced understanding of a topic of interest in education	1
2	Locate and critically evaluate the full range of references relevant to a topic of interest in education.	1
3	Use appropriate research methodology to obtain and analyse data in an investigation of a topic of interest in education, and report and interpret the significance of the findings in relation to underlying theory and practice	1

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Capability	Assessment/s
1	Advanced disciplinary knowledge and practices            Demonstrate an advanced understanding of the field of education as it relates to their specialist area of study, and the ability to synthesize and apply disciplinary principles and practices to new or complex environments.	1
2	Research-based learning            Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of research-based learning and the ability to plan, analyse, present implement and evaluate complex activities that contribute to advanced professional practice and/or intellectual scholarship in education.	1
3	Cognitive skills and critical thinking            Demonstrate advanced critical thinking and problem-solving skills	1
4	Communication, adaptive and interactional skills            Communicate effectively to a range of audiences, and be capable of independent and collaborative enquiry and team-based leadership	1
5	International outlook            Demonstrate an understanding of international perspectives relevant to the educational field	1
6	Ethical and responsible professional practice            Demonstrate an advanced capacity to recognise and negotiate the complex and often contested values and ethical practices that underlie education	1

4. RATIONALE FOR THE INCLUSION OF CONTENT AND TEACHING APPROACH

This course is being offered to provide students with an opportunity to undertake a small-scale capstone project in a specific area of their specialisation in education. The course will also enable students to develop a deeper reflective approach to education and demonstrate the ability to analyse, evaluate, synthesise and apply knowledge and skills from earlier stages of their program.

5. TEACHING STRATEGIES AND RATIONALE

EDST5888 is a self-directed course. You will work independently and have the opportunity for limited input from a project advisor in tutorial sessions throughout the term. These meetings will cover general issues in conducting small-scale projects in your area of specialisation, as well as the preparation required (e.g. developing a project proposal and a clear feasible plan for implementation). The initial session is designed to stimulate student thinking because there are a number of issues that students will need to address so that a feasible project can be developed. In the follow up meeting individual/group discussions and peer mentorship/support will be utilised to increase the capacity and capability of students for conducting small-scale projects. These activities will occur in a climate that is supportive and inclusive of all learners

6. COURSE CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

This course is an independent project. You will be allocated to a group of other students in your specialization, and an advisor who will work with you to advise you on your project proposal and final report.

For course orientation materials and a complete schedule, please see moodle.

Module	Activity
1	During O-week, complete the orientation activities on Moodle to become familiar with the structure of the course, the nature of the project, and how to work with your advisor. Further scheduling details about group meetings will be provided on moodle.
2	Prepare your project proposal (1,000 words). The proposal demonstrates the feasibility of your project in scholarly terms (e.g., conceptual approach, methods, research question) and practical terms (e.g., ability to complete the project within the time frame). Your advisor must approve the project proposal before proceeding. This is due within the first few weeks of term.
3	Complete the proposed project
4	Submit the final project report

Submission of assessments

Students are required to follow their lecturer's instructions when submitting their work for assessment. All assessment will be submitted online via Moodle by 5pm. Students are also required to keep all drafts, original data and other evidence of the authenticity of the work for at least one year after examination. If an assessment is mislaid the student is responsible for providing a further copy. Please see the Student Policies and Procedures for information regarding submission, extensions, special consideration, late penalties and hurdle requirements etc. <https://education.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/courses/course-outlines/>

Assessment Details

1. Project proposal and report

A. Proposal

Length: 1000 words

Formative feedback provided online through course website within 10 days of submission.

This is a hurdle requirement. Your project proposal must receive approval by your advisor before you can continue to undertake the project.

B. Report

Length: 8-10,000 words

Qualitative and quantitative feedback provided online through course website within 10 days of submission.

A report of the project in a form appropriate to the nature of the study. The report should be double-spaced and written in APA style. Please note the criteria for the assessment task. Sample reports from a range of specialisms will be provided online on the course's website.
