Summary of the Course

The Social Work Honours Advanced Practice Portfolio is based on a sustained, in-depth study of social work practice. Located alongside the Level 4 field education placement, it enables you to base a critical analysis of social work knowledge, methods and values on the area of practice in which you are engaged. It also enables you to demonstrate higher level analysis of theory in relation to practice. This course requires you to develop a portfolio that demonstrate analysis and evaluation and the application of learning to social work practice.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Identify and analyse the relationship between theory, knowledge, skills and values in a designated area of professional social work practice.
2. Critique identified areas of social work theory, knowledge, skills and values in identified fields of professional practice.
3. Articulate an understanding of and capacity to engage in a research-informed approach to professional social work.
4. Reflect critically on own integration and application of theory, knowledge, skills and values in a selected example of professional social work practice.
5. Produce an account of critical reflection on social work practice in a set range of appropriate professional and scholarly formats.

Teaching Strategies

The course is based on a research-based approach to professional learning, in which the student will be expected to set appropriate learning goals, and to structure their analysis and critical reflection of theory, knowledge skills and values, under the direction of the course staff.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement.

UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another's ideas or words without credit.

Inappropriate paraphrasing: Changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and/or progression of ideas of the original, and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another's ideas or words without credit and to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without appropriate referencing.

Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person's individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person's academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person's work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

Correct referencing practices:

- Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
- Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre (<http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/>). Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

UNSW Library also has the ELISE tool available to assist you with your study at UNSW. ELISE is designed to introduce new students to studying at UNSW but it can also be a great refresher during your study.

Completing the ELISE tutorial and quiz will enable you to:

- analyse topics, plan responses and organise research for academic writing and other assessment tasks
- effectively and efficiently find appropriate information sources and evaluate relevance to your needs
- use and manage information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose
- better manage your time

- understand your rights and responsibilities as a student at UNSW
- be aware of plagiarism, copyright, UNSW Student Code of Conduct and Acceptable Use of UNSW ICT Resources Policy
- be aware of the standards of behaviour expected of everyone in the UNSW community
- locate services and information about UNSW and UNSW Library

Some of these areas will be familiar to you, others will be new. Gaining a solid understanding of all the related aspects of ELISE will help you make the most of your studies at UNSW.
